CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

RACING AT HAWTHORNE.

The drubbing the Hawthorne ring received yesterday over the victories of Carnero and Tulla Fonso was fierce. Carnero was heavily backed by form players and the talent, but the play on Tulla Fonso was foreign, and most of the money taken out of the ring will go straight to St. Louis.

There was a big contingent on hand from that point, owing to its being an off day there and it seemed that they came up especially to back Tulla Fonso. The filly's best price was 3 to 1, but at post time 8 to 5 was the highest quotation in the ring. There was a St. Louis jockey, Vitatoe, on hand to ride the "good thing," and he handled her to perfection. The boy waited patiently in second place until the stretch was reached and then going to the front like a flash, he landed the purse by an open length.

Carnero had Cherry Leaf to beat at nine furlongs. Both carried 112 pounds and both were fit to run the race of their lives. Contrary to all expectations Carnero went out to set the pace and he made it a fast one. Beauchamp let Jim Murphy's stake horse gallop along as he pleased and reeling off the first mile in 1:40 he was far enough in front to loaf if he chose, but the boy kept him going and he won by six lengths in 1:52. The horse could easily have ran a second faster if he had been pushed to the limit.

The fact that Carnero is back to his best form again speaks well for Jim Murphy. He has nursed the horse along with rare patience for about two years, and has finally received his reward. A less conservative man would have either broken the horse down or given up in disgust long before this.

Unsignightly, with 115 pounds and Jockey Vitatoe up, won the second race off by herself. She was the favorite, and beat the barrier by about two lengths. After that nothing ever got within striking distance of her. She is truly a fine filly and is being very judiciously placed.

There was a big bunch of fifteen maidens in the first race, which Maurice W. won rather handily from Brown Dick. The latter swerved all over the track in the stretch and acted like some men do when overloaded with Kentucky champagne.

The fifth was a three-quarters of a mile dash for two-year-olds, and Lew Kraft coming through the stretch with a rush won handily enough at the end. Tildee, the favorite for this race, was roughly treated and did not finish in the first three.

Aureola, despite a bad ride, proved an easy winner in the closing mile and a sixteenth race. The weather was cool, the track fast, but the attendance was hardly up to the standard.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The judges at Hawthorne have made the following statement and recommendation in the case of jockey Gray:

On August 8th we suspended jockey C. Gray pending investigation of his ride on the horse Incidental, a legitimate contender in the first race of that day. In the race in question the horse was running easily in fifth position. Nearing the half-mile post, under a strong pull, Gray commenced taking his horse back every stride, and continued doing so until he was almost last and fully twenty-five lengths behind the leaders, thereby destroying any possible chance of his winning the race. He kept in this position until coming into the stretch and then began to move up. When inside the sixteenth post, close in on the rail, he drew his whip and made a feeble exhibition of riding, finishing about six lengths behind the winner. In explanation Gray said he rode hard all the way to get to the front. We are satisfied he rode purposely to lose, and evidently took advantage of the large field in the race, thinking his riding would not be observed.

His suspension from all privileges will continue indefinitely, and we further recommend to the license committee of the American Turf Congress that his license as jockey be revoked forthwith.

CASSIDY AND HOUCK'S CASE.

Colonel W. L. Cassidy and jockey Houck were ruled off by the stewards of the racing department of the St. Louis Fair Association last Saturday, for reasons set forth in the following official statement:

"W. L. Cassidy and Charles Houck are this day ruled off the turf. After carefully weighing the evidence at hand it has been determined that both the above parties have seriously violated the American racing rules, under which the St. Louis Fair Association races are run. In the matter of the Jim and Parole d'Or race of August 1, we find that Colonel Cassidy bet $600 on Jim, of which $50 was for jockey Houck, who had the mount on Parole d'Or, a contending horse in the race.

"In the absence of further testimony this would be sufficient to rule both parties off. Rule 18, of the racing rules says:

"Jockeys will not be allowed to bet except on horses which they are riding. For any violation of this rule the offender will be ruled off."

"Rule 184 of the racing rules says: 'If any person, without making it known to the officials, is a part owner, or acts as trainer, of any horse in which a jockey possesses any interest, or who makes any bet with or on behalf of any jockey, unless a horse he is riding or who offers or makes, except through his employer or the owner or trainer of the horse ridden, a jockey any present, money or other reward in connection with his riding of any race, such person so offending shall be ruled off the course.'

"Further than that, we have elicited the fact, admitted by Houck under oath, that in the Moralist-Jimp race of July 27, while the horses were on their way to the post, Cassidy called Houck, who was riding Jimp, to him and said: 'I am betting on Moralist. If you find you are beaten, help Moralist all you can.'

"This might or might not have been an invitation to the boy to pull Jimp, but it certainly was a request to him to take care, by rough riding, of any horse likely to beat Moralist in the race. Houck's ride in this race brought a sharp reprimand from the judges, as he allowed his horse to fall entirely too far out of the race, and came with a rush when too late, Moralist winning. In Jimp's next start, July 29, Cassidy bet $500 on Jimp and gave Houck $50 when he won the race.

"Cassidy, when before the board, first refused to admit that he knew Houck was on Parole d'Or, claiming that Houck had always ridden Jimp, and he thought he was on him. Later, Cassidy admitted that he knew Houck was on Parole d'Or.

"Cassidy admits talking to Houck in the paddock before the race, when he had on Parole d'Or's number and colors, and the boy admits that as he left the scales room after the race Cassidy called him to account for riding the race out. Houck claims that Cassidy had bet on Jimp before he saw him, and that when he (Cassidy) told him that he had $50 bet on Jimp for him he laughed and walked away.

"Cassidy, on the other hand, in his evidence, all of which was taken under oath in the presence of a notary, swears that Houck sent for him, told him Jimp was a certain winner and advised him to bet on him, at the same time asking him to bet $50 for him.

"We find further that Houck was allowed by Cassidy to bet on credit in the ring and charge the bets to his (Cassidy's) account.

"Cassidy furnished us with a list of owners and trainers for whom he was betting, but the bets were placed in all cases on horses which the owners or trainers were interested in. While in some cases the information given to Cassidy was perhaps a breach of trust on the part of some trainers toward their employers by allowing Cassidy to forestall them in their betting, that is not a matter for the stewards to deal with, although interested owners are welcome to the information if they wish it.

"We believe it to be for the best interests of the turf that Houck and Cassidy be expelled and that they be denied entrance to the grounds of this association under rule 190, which says: 'The officers or the executive committee shall have power to suspend or exclude from the stands and grounds improper and objectionable characters and persons who have been ruled off the course for corrupt practices on the turf in any country so long as the sentence against such persons remains in force.'

"It was claimed that Houck was half owner of the horse Jimp. We have carefully investigated this and find the claim is false. Dr. Kinder bought the horse from S. M. Marsh for $700 at the request of Houck, who offered to take a half interest in the horse. When the time came to pay, Houck could not produce his part of the money and Kinder paid for the horse and took him.

"Cassidy was invited to appear before the board later and defend himself, but refused to appear."

Winner—B. c. by Major Domo—Great Hopes. Post 15 minutes. Start good, considering the size of the field. Won under the whip but with something in reserve. There was sharp action behind the winner. Maurice W. has been knocking at the door for a long time and his race was according to form. Crowhurst took no chances and paid strict attention to his business all through the stretch. After making the turn and heading for home Brown Dick swerved all over the track. He naturally caused some interference but not enough to call for judicial action. Tully could do nothing whatever with the gelding. Deceive, after having much bad luck, ran a good, honest race. Edith Kline and Marsara were both bumped and interfered with by Brown Dick. Benjamin ran away three miles before the race. The field was dispatched without her.

Scratched—1219 Faleetto, Jr., 102; 13928 Marie Nixon, 100; 13978 Ramlet, 100. Overweights—Marsara, 2 pounds; Prince C., 1; Furo, 2; Pigit, 5; Opera Girl, 1. Maurice W., place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Brown Dick, place, 2 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Deceive, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 12½, 25, 37, 49, 1:01½.

Winner—B. f. by Pursebearer—Hira Villa. Post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won under a stout pull; second cleverly; third, fourth and fifth were driving hard. Unsightly beat the barrier and had the race safe all the way. She could have beaten almost any two-year-old at the track today. Decoy got the place as easily as Unsightly won. Tommy O'Brien was unfortunate at the start, but made up ground steadily throughout and ran a fine race. Clara Wooley will do better with weight off. Macie Maree had no excuses. She quit under pressure at the end. Tilly Ann had bad racing luck. Jake Weber ran a bad race. So did Zaza.

Scratched—13048 Calocan, 106; 13944 Jessie Woods, 101; 13979 Dr. Tarr, 104; 13979 Mission, 103; 13024 Lady Mother, 105; 13948 Nina B. L., 102.

Winner—B. h. by Candelmas—Sister Geneva. Off at the first break and all together. Won easily; the other two were driving to the limit. Carnero was at his best today. He set his own pace and at no part of the journey did Cherry Leaf have a chance to beat him. Cherry Leaf had no excuses. Crowhurst waited behind expecting Carnero to come back but in vain. No fault whatever could be found with Crowhurst's ride. The El Tor about ran his race. He is not good enough to beat those in front of him. Scratched—13963 Cricket, 100.

14041 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 12½, 25, 37, 49, 1:02, 1:14½, 1:27½, 1:40½.

Winner—B. f. by Fonso—Tulla Blackburn. Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden and out to the last ounce; the next three were very busy. Tulla Fonso was well ridden and came from behind cleverly in the stretch. She was staggering, though, and doing her best at the finish. A mile is a trifle too far for this filly. Montanus finished resolutely under punishment. Ed Tipton had clear sailing and showed a lot of speed. He gave up too early, however, when the pinch came. Defender II. ran a good race for him. He stopped and came again in the stretch. Do not count this race for Racivan. The weight may have topped him. Still it was a bad performance.

Scratched—(13978) Nellie Searcy, 97; 13928 Sylvia, 97.

Corrected weights—Racivan, 107. Tulla Fonso, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Montanus, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Ed Tipton, show, 8 to 5.

Winner—B. f, by Order—Ganges II.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second, third, fourth and fifth driving as hard. Aureole was a lot the best and had to be to win. The ride she got from H. Wilson would have been a handicap to any horse. The boy was in a good position going down the backstretch, but on the far turn foolishly tried to go through on the inside and got shut off. For an instant it seemed all up with Aureole, but when straightened away in the stretch she came again like a flash and won a well earned race. Plantain ran a good race. He was biting at Goose Liver all through the stretch and interfered with him more or less. The latter seemed to be winning on the turn but hung in the final drive. Rosa Masso was badly ridden. Fogg waited until the race was practically over before he made a move. Croesus was very roughly treated on the first turn and, in fact, the entire journey. He was compelled to run around the entire field on the stretch turn then finished very strong.

Winner—B. f. by Order—Ganges II.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second, third, fourth and fifth driving as hard. Aureole was a lot the best and had to be to win. The ride she got from H. Wilson would have been a handicap to any horse. The boy was in a good position going down the backstretch, but on the far turn foolishly tried to go through on the inside and got shut off. For an instant it seemed all up with Aureole, but when she straightened away in the stretch she came again like a flash and won a well earned race. Plantain ran a good race. He was biting at Goose Liver all through the stretch and interfered with him more or less. The latter seemed to be winning on the turn but hung in the final drive. Rosa Masso was badly ridden. Fogg waited until the race was practically over before he made a move. Croesus was very roughly treated on the first turn and, in fact, the entire journey. He was compelled to run around the entire field on the stretch turn then finished very strong.
Scratched—13214 Hosi, 105; 13842 Annawan, 99; 13844 Elidad, 108; 9635 Globe II., 105; 13990 Inverary II., 107; 13858 Hanan, 94.
